

PERSON SPECIFICATION – MARINE ELECTRICAL ENGINEER

	Essential	Desirable
Professional qualifications & experience	Demonstrable and significant experience of mechanical and electrical fitting Engineering NVQ Level 3 Engine servicing Working under pressure to meet deadlines Working in compliance with current regulations.	Degree or HND in mechanical or electrical engineering Knowledge of marine diesel engines BMET Electrical
Professional knowledge & skills	IT literacy Report writing Relevant Health & Safety legislation and guidelines	Knowledge of boats and sailing BMEEA Code of Practice
Personal skills	Strong interpersonal skills Ability to engage with customers in a positive manner Confidence to work independently and in remote locations on occasion High level of organisational skills Creativity in terms of problem solving Team-working Time management	Conversation in foreign language e.g. French
Aptitudes	Flexibility Ability to multi-task Ability to work on own initiative and as part of team as required Attention to detail and working to a high standard
Other requirements	UK driving licence and ability to use own car Current passport Ability to safely lift heavy components Willingness to travel within the UK and abroad	